Next will be crocheting the muzzle in beige, I will mark in brackets where exactly this beige color will be needed).

you want the beige columns in each row to go 1 sc less on each side. If there is some error with the columns at the beginning of the row, nothing terrible at the end of the row can be corrected, for this there are columns that I do not count with columns for strangleholds.

- 16. (beige) 12 sc, 48 sc – 60 sc

Dec to the end of the row. We fix the yarn.

We insert the eyes on the 19-20th row, approximately 14 sc of the distance between them

I sew the muzzle BLO (we fill it with a small amount of filler)

On beige, we embroider corners like mine.

We sew the horns parallel to each other for about 4-6 rows.

We sew the ears below two rows of horns.
Then we make a small tightening of the eye.

Eyelashes are embroidered with the same yarn as the nose.
